

Please do not weaken our no call laws. I feel I have a right to my privacy in my home and do not appreciate strangers calling me whenever and asking me all sorts of things that I don't particularly want to answer.